

The Week In Society.

Fate.
Two shall be born the whole wide world apart
And speak in different tongues and have no thought
Each of the other's being, and no heed.
And these o'er unknown seas to unknown lands
Shall cross, escaping wreck, defying death;
And all unconsciously shape every act
And bend each wandering step to this one end.
That, one day, out of darkness, they shall meet
And read life's meaning in each other's eyes.

"And two shall walk some narrow way of life
So nearly side by side that should one turn
Even so little space to left or right
They needs must stand acknowledged face to face;
And yet with wistful eyes that never meet,
With groping hands that never clasp, and lips
Calling in vain to ears that never hear
They seek each other all their weary days
And die unsatisfied—and this is fate!" —Spaulding.

Forecast.
Not often does a week go by in Paducah social life which is so devoid of a feature as the one just past. But if it has been a week of quiet, it also has been a week of preparation.
Society will find full expression in the horse show. The women's committees, which have charge of the social calendar for the show are actively engaged in completing the details to their work. Invitations to out-of-town sponsors have been issued. Arrangements for the grand ball and the reception have been completed with the exception of a few details.

Horse Show Plans Are Maturing.
Next Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock the children's committee of the horse show will meet at Wallace park to arrange for Children's Day at the horse show. All who may take part in the program of that day are requested to meet the committee at that time. It was one of the entertaining features of the show last year and it is the purpose to make the day eventful this year. Each child entering the contests of the day will receive an individual prize and premiums will be given for the individual boy or girl riders and for the best couple. Premiums also will be given for the best decorated cart, first and second. The judges will be selected from the out-of-town visitors to the show. There will be no musical drill this year.

Delphi Program.
With the first meeting of the Delphi club, October 2, a season of rare excellence for the club members will be opened. "Spain" is the subject of this year's study. The expression of the rich life of the Spanish people through art, literature, and in their historical action will be studied.
From the printer's viewpoint, the program is beautiful. On the first page are the pictures of Ferdinand and Isabella. The cover is a rich red with the title in gold. The club roster, constitution and by-laws, and program follow.

Reception for Children.
In recognition of the large amount of attention involved in decorating the traps for the children's flower parade in the horse show, the committee in charge of that feature will give a reception to all children who enter. The reception will be given at the home of Mrs. J. L. Friedman, chairman of the committee, the children to drive to "The Pines" in their decorated carts, the Saturday afternoon of horse show week. The equestrians will ride out in their entry costumes. It will be one of the social events of the show. The committee is bending all efforts to interest many children in the contest and each participant will receive a souvenir aside from the handsome prizes offered.

Willett-Hopkins.
Miss Henrietta Eugene Willett was married Tuesday morning in the parlors of St. Francis de Sales church by the Rev. Father H. W. Jansen, to Mr. Warren Wesley Hopkins, of St. Louis. The bride wore a gown of white serge over tulle, with hat, gloves and shoes to match. Her traveling gown was a tailored gray suit of cloth. Mr. Hopkins is a young man with a promising business career before him in St. Louis. They are on a trip through the north and will be at home in St. Louis.

Young-Moore.
Wednesday morning a quiet home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Young, 1213 Broadway, when Miss Jennie Young, his sister, was married by Bishop H. C. Morrison, of the Methodist church, to Mr. V. Frank Moore. Miss Young has made her home with her brother, Mr. W. L. Young, for several years, and has many friends in the city. Mr. Moore is a familiar figure in the postoffice service. They are on a honeymoon in Louisville, Cincinnati and other points.

Magazine Year-Book.
Copy for the "Year-Book" of the Magazine club is in the hands of the printer. From a mechanical standpoint, it will be faultless. In a preliminary business meeting Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Bertie Campbell, the Magazine club outlined the program for the season of 1906-1907, elected officers and new members and transacted other business. The first meeting will be held with Mrs. Bertie Campbell unless otherwise changed October 11.

Notes.
For the pleasure of their visitors Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moshell entertained a small party with a trip to Cairo Tuesday on the steamer Dick Fowler. Misses Bertie Roesech and Mary Mariett, of Vicksburg, Miss., Ella Hill, Lena Shelton, Bertha Hill and Mabel Shelton composed the party.

Sunday a crowd of young people spent the day at Cold Springs and a most pleasant time was had. The party included Irene Curd, Cora Dunlap, Iole Konetzka, Gertrude Fisher, Miss Dickerson, of St. Louis; Messrs. Joe Fisher, Lon Vale, Jack Fisher, Cecil Patton, James Luttrell and James Davis.
Mr. Charles Cox entertained in compliment to his visitor, Mr. Quog, of Chicago, Saturday with a trip to Cairo on the steamer Dick Fowler. In the party were Misses Lillian Gregory, Marjory Scott and Frances Wallace; Messrs. Quog and Cox. Mrs. Armour Gardner was chaperone.

About People.
Miss Lillian and Miss Yorena Beyer left yesterday evening for Terre Haute, Ind., where they will enter college. They were accompanied by their mother, Mrs. George Beyer, and Mrs. William Katterjohn, their aunt.
Mrs. J. G. Brooks will go to St. Louis today and there will be joined by Miss Ethel Brooks who has been visiting in Indianapolis. They will go from St. Louis to Denver, Col., to visit Mrs. Brooks' mother, Mrs. King.
Misses Catharine Perkins, of El Dorado, Ill., and Edith Davenport, left this morning for Bethel college. They were escorted by Miss Ethel Calissal.
Miss Lucille Graves, daughter of Dr. W. E. Graves, has returned from St. Louis, where she has been visiting friends for several weeks.

Mr. W. C. (Dick) Shearer, of Jackson Poultry and Machine company, is out after a week's confinement with malaria.
Col. James Lemon, editor of the Mayfield Messenger, returned to that city last night after a business trip in Paducah.

Col. Henry Bailey, city clerk, has returned from Smithland, where he was a witness in a damage suit.
Mrs. J. C. Gilbert, who has been visiting friends in Benton, has returned to Paducah.
Miss Campbell has returned to Paducah with friends at Elizabethtown, Ky.

well known policeman, is seriously ill of fever.

Col. James Wear, editor of the Benton Tribune-Democrat, is in the city.
Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Petit, of Monroe, La., are visiting in the city.
Mr. Linnus Orme returned from Fulton this morning.

ANOTHER TRIAL

FOR CRITTENDEN—FORMERLY EDITOR OF CRITTENDEN.

Judge Gordon Ignores Appearance Before County Judge at Smithland.

J. E. Chittenden, formerly editor of the Crittenden Record at Marion and now Hopkinsville inspector for the Kentucky board of fire underwriters, has been notified by a friend that his acquittal on the charge of contempt of court before the county judge of Crittenden county had been ignored by Judge Gordon of the circuit court and that summons would be issued requiring him to appear before the December term of court for trial.

Editor Chittenden was indicted for criminal libel as the result of some campaign charges he made. He went to Smithland and, he states, agreed to pay a fine of $200 but with the distinct understanding that he did not plead guilty. When the record was made it stated that he had pleaded guilty and it was so published in the Crittenden Press. Mr. Chittenden replied vigorously in the Record, giving his side of the case and adhering to his claim that he had not pleaded guilty.

A special grand jury indicted him again. Mr. Chittenden then went to Smithland and secured a trial before the county judge, which resulted in his acquittal and this is the trial which Judge Gordon now refuses to recognize.

SWITCH STAND

INVENTED BY PADUCAHANS WILL BE TESTED.

Illinois Central Interested and If It Is Successful, May Purchase Right.

If the patent automatic locking switch stand, the invention of Messrs. Robert Richardson and Stoddard Robertson, proves a success, they will receive an offer from the Illinois Central for the rights and it will mean a fortune to them.

The young men invented a switch stand, which will save time for the switchmen. They do not have to stop to adjust a padlock. The Illinois Central has agreed to give the patent a test on the Paducah district and two stands will be built at once at a local foundry.

Mr. W. McCabe, chief dispatcher for the Paducah district, is acting as attorney for the young men and has entire charge of the experiment.

Several large roads have closely examined the patent and will make offers, it is understood, when the experiment proves a success.

TELL OF PEONAGE CAMP.

Armed Men Placed Over Negroes on Missouri Plantation.

Cape Girardeau, Mo., Sept. 15.—Oliver Williams and James Stam, white men, testified today in the Smith brothers' peonage trial that they were furnished arms to guard the tents in which the negroes slept. Both were discharged for allowing five or six negroes to escape. Williams stated on cross-examination that he had been instructed to guard the negroes from the assaults of white men from without. He found, however, that this pretended employment was only a subterfuge. His real employment was to prevent negroes from escaping. Gid Slinkard, a white man, testified that he saw one negro tied to a post by the neck and beaten with a horsewhip. An old negro showed the jury an eye that he said was knocked out because he was unable to work.

MARSHAL SANDERS

Pays Paducah a Visit and Meets Friends.

Mr. George Saunders, formerly deputy United States marshal in this district, is in the city on business. He met many of his old friends here today and probably will remain over Sunday. He had the misfortune to lose his left leg through the accidental discharge of a pistol dropped from his pocket, and handicapped by the loss of his leg his visits have been scarce in Paducah.

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Were Not Passengers.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 15.—Assistant Secretary Murray, of the department of commerce and labor has handed down a decision in favor of the People's Coal company, of Pittsburgh, in the appeal of the case in which a $500 fine was assessed against the coal company by Louisville port authorities. The fine was assessed when the towboat R. L. Aubrey, belonging to the People's Coal company sank near Louisville Aug. 7, 1905, and several persons were drowned. The charge that the towboat carried passengers, which is contrary to governmental regulations, was made. Assistant Secretary Murray has decided that the persons drowned and others on the boat could not be designated as passengers because they had paid no fare for passage.

$7,000 for Loss of a Leg.

Leitchfield, Ky., Sept. 15.—After a strong legal contest of three days Z. T. Proctor, a prominent lawyer of this place, was awarded $7,000 damages against the Illinois Central Railroad company today for the loss of a limb by being run over at Spring Lick three years ago. Mr. Proctor was represented in the case by Judge Matt O'Doherty, of Louisville, ex-Circuit Judge T. R. McBeath and John S. Grayham, of this city, while the railroad company was represented by their local attorney, J. S. Wortham.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Sept. 15.—The large portable saw mill belonging to Riley Waters, at Mariba, Menefee county, blew up as the result of a boiler explosion yesterday evening at 5:30 o'clock. John Hale and Ross Byrd were instantly killed and Mrs. Waters and her child and Miss Dicie Wilson were so badly burned they will die.

Drs. Bruce and Charley Northcutt, of this city, were called to the scene. The mill was completely demolished, entailing a loss of $3,000.

Big Crowd at Guthrie.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 15.—The crowd of 20,000 people who visited Guthrie, Ky., last year, at the second annual anniversary of the organization of the Dark Tobacco District Planters' Protective Association of Kentucky and Tennessee, promises to be exceeded by at least another 5,000 on September 23, when the third reunion will be held at Guthrie.

Ollie James to Speak in Sixth.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 15.—Congressman Ollie James, of the First Kentucky district, is going to deliver a series of speeches in the Sixth district for Congressman Rhinock some time next month. It is probable that a big meeting will be arranged for Covington, and four or five other speeches will be delivered in the other counties in the district.

May Oppose Harvey Helm.

Lancaster, Ky., Sept. 15.—It is reported that the Hon. Louis Walker, L. & N. attorney, and formerly law partner of ex-Governor Bradley, will probably be the Republican nominee for congress in this district against Helm, of Stanford. Mr. Walker just left for a few days' visit in Denver, and an interview is unobtainable.

Alcohol From Corn Cobs.

Washington, Sept. 15.—In the manufacture of alcohol from corn cobs and corn stalks at small cost, the department of agriculture is developing a new industry that the department says is likely to be of large commercial value. Investigations which the department is making at Hoopeston, Ill., have proved that the large quantities of corn cobs which every year heretofore have gone to waste, can be converted into alcohol in sufficient quantities to justify the erection of a distilling plant in connection with a corn cannery. The department of agriculture sent two chemists to Hoopeston to make experiments at a large cannery there. They have succeeded by simple methods of fermentation in getting a yield of eleven gallons of alcohol from a ton of green cobs, and by similar methods in getting six gallons of alcohol from a ton of green corn stalks.
